Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF
MICRO, SMALL AND MEDIUM ENTERPRISES
(SHRI GIRIRAJ SINGH)

(a): MSME Development Institutes have conducted 158 National Level Vendor Development Programmes (NVDPs) and 863 State Level Vendor Development Progrmames (SVDPs) during the last three years i.e. 2013-14, 2014-15 and 2015-16. 61,747 Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) were benefitted by participating in these programmes.

(b) & (c): The Vendor Development Programme is organized to create awareness among the MSMEs about the procurement needs of the Public Sector Undertakings (PSUs) and their registration procedure. The aim of organizing these programmes by the PSUs among others is to provide common platform for competitive procurement from MSMEs and also to increase their vendor base by providing appropriate market linkages.

(d): The details of targets fixed and achieved under the programme during the last three years are detailed below:
